

Celebrating Young Children and Their Teachers

Foreword by Polly Greenberg	ix
Introduction: My Next Fifty Years.	1
Snowball.	9
My Puppet Is on Ritalin.	15
“Do Spiderwebs Ever Wake You Up?” Why I Hang Out with the Kids	19
I’m Worried about Our Children	25
Words of Encouragement: Honey on the Page	31
A Letter to Families and Friends of the Children in Room 13	37
The Whole Truth about Hole Language: Can You Dig It?	45
Schools Children Run To	55
“My Loose Is Tooth!” Kidding Around with the Kids	61
Get the Elephant Out of the Room: We’re Finished with the “E”s.	69

Education Is a Moving Experience: Get Moving!	77
Can a Fish Snap Its Fingers?	81
“Wanna Play?”	89
We Drew a Circle That Took Him In	95
Let’s Keep the “L” Word	101
Oh, No! Not the “L” Word Again	107
Uh-Uh! None of This “I’m Not Creative” Stuff	113
Telling Time.	117
Why I’m Still Hanging Out with the Kids.	121
Acknowledgments	125