

Nurturing Young Children's Disposition to Learn

	Foreword by William Crain	xi
	Acknowledgments	xv
	Introduction	xvii
Part 1	Perspectives on Learning: Nature and Nurture, Social Issues, and Individual Dispositions	1
Chapter 1	Brain Research and the Learning Child	3
	Brain Research: Nature and Nurture	4
	Professional Development Suggestions	9
	The Developmental-Interaction Approach	9
	Professional Development Suggestions	13
Chapter 2	Family, Societal, and Cultural Issues	15
	Changing Families	15
	Families and Children Placed at Risk by Poverty	17
	Cultural Differences	18
	Professional Development Suggestions	24

Chapter 3	Multiple Intelligences Theory	25
	Linguistic Intelligence	27
	Logical-Mathematical Intelligence	29
	Musical Intelligence	31
	Bodily-Kinesthetic Intelligence	33
	Spatial Intelligence	34
	Interpersonal Intelligence	36
	Intrapersonal Intelligence	39
	Naturalist Intelligence	40
	The Intelligence of Big Questions	42
	Using the Lens of Multiple Intelligences Theory in Our Work with Children	44
	Professional Development Suggestions	45
	Thinking About Part 1	46
Part 2	Perspectives on Practice: Inside Classrooms and Schools	49
Chapter 4	Environments That Invite Learning	51
	Learning from the Early Childhood Municipal Schools of Reggio Emilia	51
	A Reggio Perspective of Nurture and a Child's Disposition to Learn	53
	Reggio Emilia Learning Environments	54
	Bringing the Reggio Experience Home	56
	Learning to Be Comfortable with New Ideas	60
	A Visit to My Early Childhood Center	61
	Learning Environments That Welcome All Young Children Today	66
	Professional Development Suggestions	67
	Early Childhood Environments That Invite Young Children's Disposition to Learn	69
Chapter 5	Observing and Describing	84
	The Descriptive Review of a Child	87
	Professional Development Suggestions	96

Chapter 6	Developing Positive Communication	97
	Communicating in Your Personal Voice	99
	Communicating with Colleagues	101
	Communicating with Families	103
	Children Communicating with Each Other	104
	Professional Development Suggestions	108
Chapter 7	Standards, Curriculum, and Young Learners	109
	Recognizing and Coping with the Risks of Standardization	109
	Creating the Conditions for Success	112
	Literacy: Examining One Early Learning Standard from Top to Bottom	114
	Professional Development Suggestions	121
Chapter 8	Helping Families Support Children's Learning	123
	Balancing Warmth and Professionalism	123
	Maintaining Structure in Your Relationships with Families	124
	Dealing with Frequently Asked Questions	127
	Professional Development Suggestions	132
	Epilogue	133
	References	135