

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION ABOUT BOOKS

Use these questions to guide your small group discussion.

1. What are the special features of this type of book (such as provides accurate information, photos offer realistic images, illustrations are beautiful, and so on)?
2. When would you use this type of book with children?
3. How might you use this type of book to enrich children's explorations of water?
4. What do you think are some of the benefits of using this type of book with children (namely, what can children gain)?
5. Is this book scientifically accurate? If not, how would you deal with that?